Annexure III

(1.3)

An analysis of feedback from students is as follows:-

In this session, students wished some more facilities like R.O facility because the water in Palwal region is salty. They suggested some reference books in the library in various streams. They also expressed their desire that the college should start some PG courses in the near future so that they may not have to travel long distance for higher studies.

An analysis of feedback from parents is as follows:-

Although the parents appreciated the discipline and security arrangements in the college but some of them suggested that the college should have two permanent guards instead of gatekeeper at the college gate. They wished that their wards should be made aware regarding their rights (legal and social) and duties towards the nation and toward parents and society.

An analysis of feedback from alumni is given below:-

In this session, the alumni expressed their heartfelt gratitude to their role models who were none other than their teachers and some seniors. They thanked all the stakeholders for inculcating priceless virtues and values in them. They wished that the college should continue with its efforts to provide holistic education to its pupils and help them to grow as responsible citizens of the nation.

IQAC performs its duty of contributing/ monitoring and evaluating the teaching learning process by adopting the following mechanism:

- In the beginning of the session, an academic calendar/plan of action is prepared which is followed by faculty and students.
- Syllabi booklet with division of the curriculum to be covered till a specified time-period and tentative dates of the monthly weekly tests.
- Performance in test records is analyzed in meetings with HODs
- Weak students are given personal mentoring
- On the basis of score of students and attendance, internal assessment is prepared.
- Performance of weak students is communicated to parents too, so that they may persuade their wards to do better and give them the required support at home.
- Teaching learning is made more student centric, not only by sincere efforts exercised by teachers, but also by providing good books.
- Teaching-learning is also made effective by adopting latest technology and audio-visual aids in teaching in class rooms.
- Teaching –learning is made more efficient by encouraging faculty to update their knowledge by attending conferences, seminars, workshops etc.
- On the whole, IQAC tries hard to follow all possible measures to work towards making teaching-learning a memorable experience at SMM Palwal.
