

SARASWATI MAHILA MAHAVIDYALAYA, PALWAL

LESSON PLAN

Class: M.A IInd

Semester: IIIrd

Subject: Comparative politics

Session: 2020

Lectures	Topic
L1	Comparative politics: meaning, nature.
L2	Concept and scope.
L3	Evolution of comparative politics.
L4	Traditional Approaches.
L5	Main feature and difference
L6	Structural functional Approach.
L7	Views of Almond and Powell
L8	Criticism of the structural-function
L9	modernism - Lijinski approach
L10	Basic Assumption of Approaches
L11	Utility of Lenin and Marx's approach
L12	Constitutional: meaning and definition.
L13	Nature and characteristics.
L14	History and scope
L15	Distinction between constitution and

Signature:

Lectures	Topic
L16	Constitutionalism
L17	Different concepts of Constitutionalism
L18	Characteristics of western
L19	Constitutionalism
L20	Constitutionalism of the developing countries.
L21	Problems of developing countries
L22	Problems of modern constitutionalism
L23	Suggestion regarding the elimination of problems of constitutionalism.
L24	Concept of power: meaning, nature.
L25	Characteristic of power, sources and types.
L26	Features of political power.
L27	Political power: Economic power
L28	Ideological power: meaning, concepts
L29	Concept of Authority: Nature
L30	Authority: Basic, kinds and features.
L31	Limits of Authority.
L32	Difference between power and Authority

Lectures	Topic
L33	Concept of legitimacy: meaning,
L34	characteristics and nature.
L35	classification of legitimacy.
L36	crisis of legitimacy.
L37	How legitimacy can be secured and maintained.
L38	forms of Government.
L39	parliamentary Government.
L40	Merits and demerits of parliamentary
L41	president system: meaning concepts
L42	Main characteristics pre. Govt.
L43	The American president system.
L44	Merits and demerits.
L45	Comparative study of the presidents.
L46	forms of Govt. Unitary and federal: structure and functions.
L47	Unitary Govt. merits and demerits
L48	main features
L49	Theory of federalism.

Lectures	Topic
L50.	Merits and demerits of federal
L51.	comparison between unitary and federalism.
L52	Comparative study USA, USSR and Switzerland.
L53	Organs of Govt: Executive
L54	meaning, functions and types
L55	Indian president: power, function
L56	legislative: meaning, functional and importance.
L57	Judiciary: meaning, function and importance.
L58	origin of Judicial Reviews.
L59	Role of Judicial Reviews.
L60	Limitation of Judicial Reviews.